

Job description :

Key Account & Projects Engineer

Company :

Aspel Group is a privately owned company that was created in 2000 by uniting 3 companies in Belgium. The shareholder is financially strong and has a long term investment strategy with a focus on value growth. Now ASPEL has 5 manufacturing plants located in Belgium, Slovakia, Mexico and China. The group is Headquartered in Eupen (B).

Aspel has a good reputation helping our customers to create value since more than 20 years in Plastic Injection Molding.

ASPEL is active in several industries such automotive, electronic, house appliances, defense,

We have a well articulated Mission, Vision, Values and Strategy.

Responsibilities :

- Preparation of technical quotes for projects (in close cooperation with Engineering Manager and the Key Account Manager)
- Manage/ handle all the technical discussions with the Customer
- Plan and manage new projects
- Create a Project Team in order to manage/ provide in-put in the development of the new project, (Team should include Plant representatives from Quality, Production, etc. Departments and sub-contractors)
- Coordinate the different parties involved in the project regarding the different tasks, the timing and the project follow-up until the release of the project is done and taken as accepted by the receiving Production site
- Motivate and continuously manage the Project Team by defining priorities, based on the technical and organisational experience
- Responsible for the good execution/ launch of the project
- Assure that the Project (Tools, periphery, methods) that are launched in the Production Plants meet Customer specifications and requirements as well as Aspel ones
- Review the result (lead time, budget, quality) at the end of the projects with the Key Account Manager

Requirements :

- Degree: Master – Industrial engineer or equivalent experience
- Knowledge/Experience: Injection molds - Plastic parts injection – Plastic parts optimisations – Molds and plastic parts quotation – annex technologies (automatisation, assembly, ...).
- Personal skills: Sense of responsibilities – Team spirit
- Languages: English, French, other languages are a plus
- PC knowledge: Microsoft programs.

Reporting / Location :

The job reports to the Engineering Manager and is located in Eupen, Belgium.